DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-9 and 11-19 are pending and have been examined.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. It is noted that no Information Disclosure Statement has been filed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-9 and 11-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

5. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

6. Claims 1-9 and 11-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

7. Claims 1-9 and 11-19 are not statutory as they are drawn as a whole to an abstract idea. A review of the factors outlined in the July 27, 2010 policy memo and OG Notice, indicates that these claims are not statutory. These claims fail the machine or transformation test as the steps could be performed in one's mind or manually and involve only the general concept covering both known and unknown uses of the concept covered, and can be performed through any existing or future-devised machinery or even without any apparatus.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

9. Claims 1-9 and 11-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Romain (20040071288).

Regarding claims 1, 8, and 12, Romain teaches a securing process for an electronic system using a cryptographic calculation procedure that uses a secret key, comprising: masking intermediate results in input or output of at least one critical function of the said procedure so that the critical function respectively gives in output or receives in input non-masked intermediate results (par.88-92).

Regarding claim 2, Romain teaches a replacement function for a critical function of the said procedure making the same calculation but with results masked in input or output (par.24-26).

Regarding claims 3 and 14, Romain teaches sequencing replacement functions so as to give non- masked results for input and output of the said procedure (par.24-26).

Regarding claims 4 and 15-16, Romain teaches using different masks according to the critical functions concerned (par.34-37).

Regarding claims 5 and 17, Romain teaches wherein the replacement function on results masked for input is built based on the following operations: an operation of masking that is not public; an operation making the same calculation as the critical function but with results masked using the masking function (par.34-37).

Regarding claims 6 and 18, Romain teaches wherein the replacement function on data masked in output is built based on the following operations: an operation making the same calculation as the critical function but on results that must be masked by the masking function; a non-public masking function (par.34-37).

Regarding claims 7 and 19, Romain teaches sequencing the operations of the masking function in a random manner (par.34-37).

Regarding claim 9, Romain teaches wherein the masking means for intermediate results and calculation according to the critical function but with the said results masked are made of an S-box (par.84-87).

Art Unit: 2436

Regarding claim 11, Romain teaches using different masks according to the critical functions concerned (par.34-37).

Regarding claim 13, Romain teaches execute a replacement function for a critical function of the said procedure making the same calculation but with results masked in input or output (par.34-37).
